Overlooking the historic district of Antibes, this 210 m² architect-designed loft combines open spaces, privacy and outstanding views. It occupies a contemporary residence of just two apartments, less than 300 metres from the beaches, harbour, shops and Old Antibes.

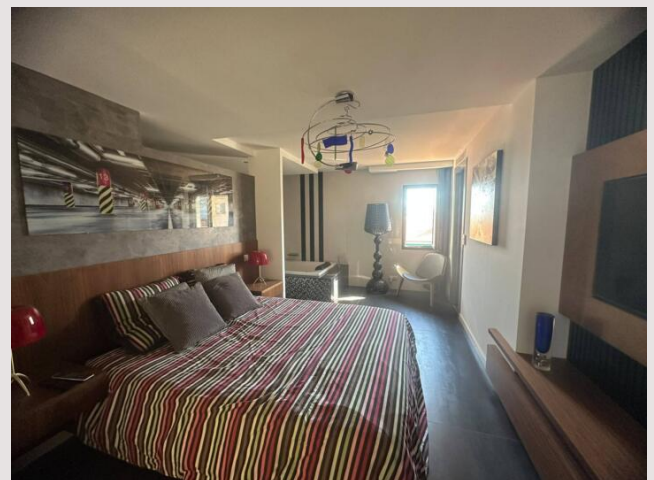

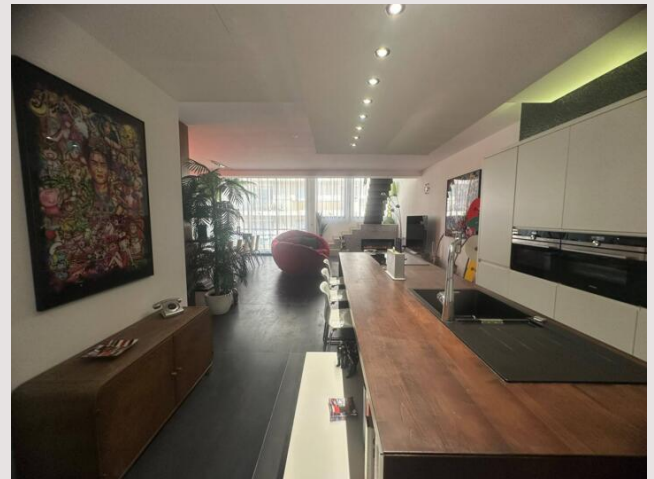

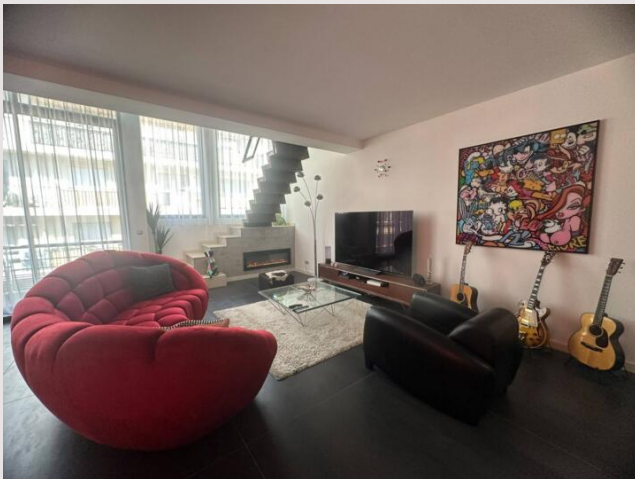

Three terraces, totalling 40 m², extend the living spaces outdoors and reveal a 180° panorama of the Mediterranean, the hinterland mountains, Fort Carré, Port Vauban and the Old Town.

The 65 m² reception area brings together a spacious living room, a lounge with a feature fireplace and a bespoke kitchen with a central island. A panoramic lounge with a summer kitchenette provides an additional space for entertaining and enjoying the views.

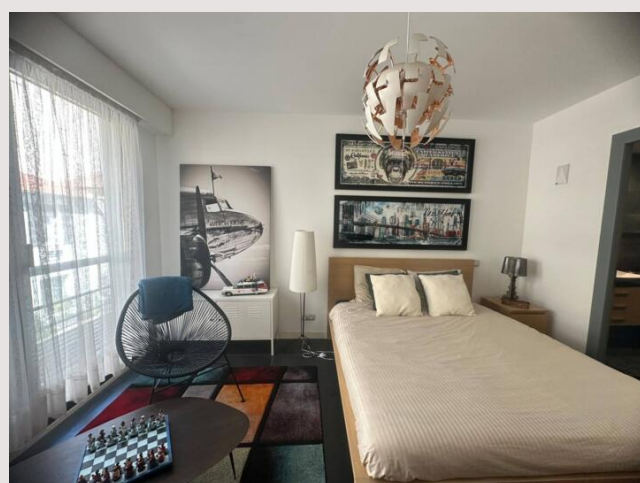

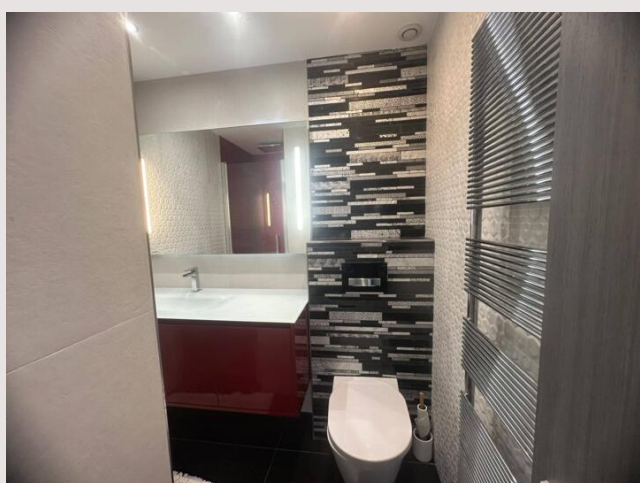

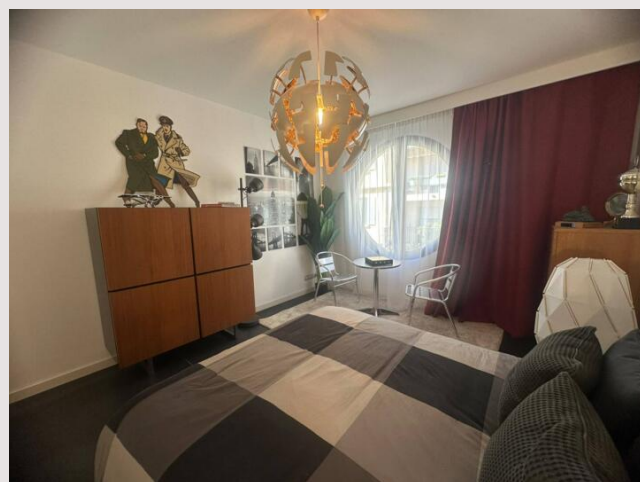

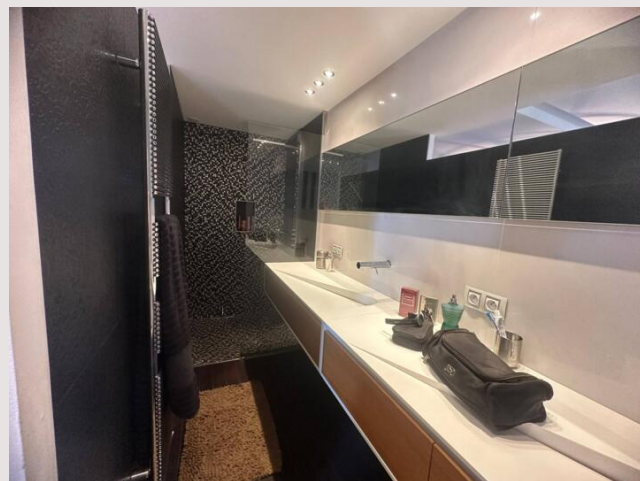

The sleeping accommodation includes three suites. The 55 m² principal suite features a dressing room, a bathroom and a mezzanine lounge-library. The specification includes a private lift, integrated air conditioning, bespoke furniture crafted by a cabinetmaker, fine materials and large Schüco windows. A whirlpool bath and four walk-in showers complete the amenities.

A distinctive contemporary home within walking distance of the waterfront and the life of Old Antibes. Contact us to arrange a viewing.
